ROTHESAY

By Appointment

Ettrick Bay. This picturesque bay is five miles due west across the island from Rothesay. Near it are the remains of a stone circle and the remains of a fort, while a Standing Stone with a cross cut deeply into its weather-worn surface marks the site of an early chapel. Opposite looms Kames Hill, the highest ground in the island (911 feet).

Maplebank

Spent a lovely
day at this baby show. Aeroplanes
paper boys riding
on donkeys etc.
Love to all from us all. Mary Brown.
